

"Exodus House" 131 Furman Street, Syracuse, NY - August 2008

Help Needed:

A crew of skilled men,
with tools,
and some materials.

Cornerstone Life Development - Syracuse

Rev. Jim Fiato, Pastor of Cornerstone Wesleyan Tabernacle and Executive Director of the Syracuse Branch of Cornerstone Life Development, is looking for a few good men to rebuild this entrance to "Exodus House", one of three ministry houses owned and operated by Cornerstone Life Development in Syracuse. A great crew of guys from Buffalo tore out some crumbling old concrete steps and built a solid set of safe wooden steps with a railing. Now the surrounding structure needs attention. Much of the work on these ministry houses is done by the residents but this job is beyond their abilities and needs attention before the snow flies. The fascia and soffit above the entrance need to be rebuilt. The framing under the composition board needs to be investigated and rebuilt as necessary. The entry area window needs framing and the surrounding siding needs to be repaired. We also need the materials necessary to do the work. If you can put together a crew or donate toward the needed materials please contact Pastor Jim Fiato directly at 315-863-6217.

Cornerstone Life Development (CLD) is a not for profit corporation started by CNY Wesleyans that presently has branches in Syracuse and Camden. CLD started in Syracuse as an outreach ministry of Cornerstone Wesleyan Tabernacle to needy and disadvantaged individuals. CLD - Syracuse currently owns and operates three ministry homes on Furman Street on Syracuse's south side. CLD provides an in residence program that seeks to help men and women with life controlling issues turn their lives around by offering them:

- Biblical Teaching
- Loving Church Family Support
- Life Skills Training
- Vocational Training
- Apprenticeship Opportunities
- Job Placement Assistance
- Christian Financial Guidance